

Invitation to Young History Teachers and Post-Doctoral Students for their participation in the National Conference on Indian History: Emerging Perspectives

ICHR is organizing a 3-Day National Conference on *Indian History: Emerging Perspectives from 5th to 7th March 2018 at New Delhi. Eminent historians and scholars will be participating in the conference. With a view to encourage wider participation, the ICHR intends to invite University or College young History Teachers (below 35 Age) and Post-Doctoral Students (Registered only) to participate and take part in the 3-Day Conference.

The interested young History Teachers and Post-Doctoral Students may send their application along with brief bio-data. The applications should be endorsed and forwarded by the concerned Head of the Colleges/Department/Institution. The participants should also submit one-page note on reasons and relevance of the theme to their research for their participation. A limited number of participants will be selected based on merits by Selection Committee.

The ICHR will reimburse III- AC Rail fare or Bus-fare and arrange three days dormitory accommodation to the selected participants.

Those who are interested may send their application by Post /Hand to following address on or before 9th Feb. 2018. Applications received after this will not be entertained.

The Director (JP&L)
Indian Council of Historical Research
35, Ferozeshah Road, NEW DELHI-110001.

For more details please visit to our office website: www.ichr.ac.in

- Member Secretary