

Indian Council of Historical Research

35, Ferozeshah Road, New Delhi-110001

Cordially invites you to a lecture in connection with the celebration of

“National Education Day” (Commemorating birth anniversary of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad)

Professor Satish Chandra Mittal
Eminent Historian
Former Professor of Kurukshetra University will deliver the Memorial Lecture

on

'भारत में क्रांतिकारी आंदोलन:
इसका स्वरूप और प्रभाव'

Dr. B.R. Mani
Director General, National Museum, New Delhi
will preside

Date : 16th November 2017 (Thursday)
Time : 4.00 p.m.
Venue: Deputy Speaker Hall, Constitution Club of India
Rafi Marg, Behind Reserve Bank of India, New Delhi
(Nearest Metro Station: Patel Chowk & Central Secretariat Gate no. 3)*

R.S.V.P.
Phone No. 23384662
23386033, 23387877

Prof. Rajaneesh Kumar Shukla
Member Secretary

About the Speaker:

Professor Satish Chandra Mittal (B.1938) is an eminent historian and former Professor of Modern Indian History Kurukshetra University, Haryana. He is the author of more than thirty books and also number of research articles published in various national and international reputed journals. His important books are Freedom Movement in Punjab (1905-1929). Sources of National Movement (1919-1920); Haryana: A Historical Perspective (1761-1966); A Selected Annotated Bibliography on Freedom Movement in India: Punjab, Haryana (1888-1947) and India Distorted: A Study of British Historians on India; Rashtriya Chaitanya Ke Prakash Mein Bharat mein Rahstriyata ka Swaroop (in Hindi) (2013); Professor Mittal is presently National President of All India Itihas Sankalan Yojana.

PROGRAMME

Welcome & Introduction of the Guests	:	Prof. Rajaneesh Kumar Shukla. Member Secretary, ICHR
National Education Day Lecture	:	Professor S. C. Mittal Eminent Historian
Concluding Remarks	:	Dr. B.R. Mani Director General, National Museum
Vote of thanks	:	Dr. S.K. Aruni Director (JP & L), ICHR
High tea		